Series - The Greatest Stories Ever Told: Parable of Mustard Seed and Yeast

Passages: Lk 13:18-21

REFLECT on the message heard on Sunday, 7/22

1. Read Luke 13:18-21. Jesus seems to be saying that the Kingdom of God often goes forth by using small things for big impact. How have you seen this truth lived out?
2. Let's look at some other passages in the Bible where this "Kingdom M.O." seems to play out. Tell how you see it in each of these passages.
 - 1 Corinthians 1:27-31
 - Zechariah 4:6
 - Matthew 20:25-28
 - 2 Corinthians 4:7
 - Philippians 2:5-11
 - Do other passages occur to you?
3. How does God's way of doing business differ from the way the world tends to do things?
4. How does this idea of God using small things for big impact encourage you?
5. APPLICATION:
What yeast do you need to work through your dough to help you rise more and more? (Jesus, Bible/truth, others, confession, centering, etc.)
How could you plant seeds to help make God's Kingdom grow? (be gracious, compassion, invite, share, serve, etc.)
