

FOCUS: During our 8-week Made for Mondays series, we will discover what it looks like to go from simply working as an employee, student, stay-at-home mom, retiree (or even when unemployed) to fulfilling God's unique mission for each of us. This week, we reflect on how your faith should influence your work.

1. Watch this video of Kimberly [https://bit.ly/2vYu7hH]. What aspect of her approach are you drawn to the most? What statements impacted you the most? What are her motivations?
2. How do these passages [Prov.16:3, 2Cor.5:15-16, Eph.6:7-8, Col.3:23-24] speak to how we should view the work (paid or unpaid) we do? Why is this challenging? What helps you to hold on to these perspectives?
3. Read this quote by Fredrick Buechner: "The place God calls you to is the place where your deep gladness [joy] and the world's deep hunger [need] meet." How have you seen the different calls of God play out in your lifetime? How challenging is it for you to believe that God calls you to specific work at a certain time?
4. What is Eph. 6:5-6, 9 saying to you about God's view of work relationships? How could you apply this to your daily approach to your work? What might hold you back from this approach?
5. Start to use the B.L.E.S.S. [https://vimeo.com/252441558] strategy at your work -- Begin with prayer: develop a daily prayer for a new approach to work (i.e., "Lord help me bring the kingdom to my work."). Make a list of 3 people you work with to pray for regularly.
