

Beyond Sunday

For groups, friends, families, couples, or individuals to reflect on the message you heard this Sunday.

Focus: The next 6 weeks we are looking at the church and how they valued the art of one-anothering. Did you know the words “one another” are used 59 times in the New Testament? “Love one another.” “Forgive one another.” “Regard one another as more important than yourselves.” And the list goes on... Seems like God has a grand design for transforming lives through the power of community that “one-anothers” each other well. This week, what we hope to discover is that church wasn’t designed to be solely experienced in rows, but to be in circles with one another.

1. Reflect back in your life and share a snapshot of a time when you did life with others in manner where you felt accepted, challenged, and deeply satisfied.
2. Read Matthew 16:15-18. When Jesus introduced the church (def. ecclesia: A called out congregation or community of people), he wasn’t thinking about a place, he envisioned a people: a gathering of diverse people around the belief that Jesus is the chosen and sent one of God. Most people don’t think of church this way. How do you characterize the church? How can the confusion about the church being place vs. a people hinder us from one-anothering in our faith community and out in the world?
3. Read John 13:31-35. What is this passage saying about how to one-another and what the ultimate outcome will be? Do you really believe this is possible? Why or why not?
4. Gary stated in his message, “The primary activity of the church was to one-another one another!” How have you seen this play out or not? And for this to happen more in your life what would have to change?
5. Google “one others: in the Bible. Then click on one of the sites and read through the 59 one-anothers. Pick the top 3 that matter to you most. Discuss or journal why this is so.

Call to Action:

- a. Get in group (wearepcc.com/adults/small-groups/) to be the church
- b. Determine who and how you will one-another

The Art of Valuing One Another

By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. John 13:35 artisan definition: something created in a traditional or non-mechanized way using high-quality ingredients

Inception

He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter replied, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Matthew 16:15-18 (ESV)

Intention

Impression

When he was gone, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once. “My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come. “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”
John 13:31-35
