

Beyond Sunday

For groups, friends, families, couples, or individuals to reflect on the message you heard this Sunday.

FOCUS: During our 8-week Made for Mondays series, we will discover what it looks like to go from simply working as an employee, student, stay-at-home mom, retiree (or even when unemployed) to fulfilling God's unique mission for each of us. This week, we reflect on the work God has given us and others.

1. How would you describe your work? [On a daily basis, I am a _____ who _____.] What is it you like about your work? What is most satisfying/dissatisfying about it? If you could choose some other type of work, what would it be and why?
2. Reflect on these passages: Genesis 2:3, Genesis 2:15, Psalm 90:17, Proverbs 16:3, Ecclesiastes 3:22, John 5:17, Acts 17:25-26, Ephesians 2:10, Colossians 3:23. Which ones speak to you the most about work and why?
3. Review Daniel 1-3. How does Daniel integrate his faith into his work and what were the results? Who are other biblical characters who integrated their faith and work? What inspires and challenges you about these men and women?
4. What are some hindrances that hold individuals back from integrating their faith and work? What attributes are essential to live into this approach?
5. Reflect on the gap between your work (what you do most days) and faith. Is it compartmentalized or integrated? Why? In order to close the gap, what needs to remain or change in your beliefs, attitudes, or actions?
