

FOCUS: During our 8-week Made for Mondays series, we will discover what it looks like to go from simply working as an employee, student, stay-at-home mom, retiree (or even when unemployed) to fulfilling God's unique mission for each of us. This week, we reflect on what it means to have a Monday morning mindset.

1. Watch this video of Lindsay [https://bit.ly/1KIJ2d6]. What aspect of her approach are you drawn to the most? Why and how do you think she does what she does?
2. In a 2019 survey conducted by the Barna Group, they concluded that while the desire is high, almost 75% of Christians are not integrating who they are at church with their Monday-Saturday life. Why do you think this is so for others and you?
3. Genesis 1 reveals God bringing order through His work. Read Gen. 2:15. This is about mankind bringing order through their work. What is the work Adam is called to do? And if all work is participating with God to be restorers of the world so it reflects the garden, how has God called you to be garden restorer at your work?
4. Read Gen. 2:2, Gen. 2:16-17, Gen. 3:17, 1Cor.10:31. Why do you think God would put boundaries on our work--cursed work--and called us to glorify Him through our work?
5. This week, what will you do differently to approach your work with God more as a gardener who is restoring things back to His kingdom order?

BONUS CONTENT

- a. Pray for those in the education sector (administrators, teachers, students) to live out their faith.
- b. Complete this survey [Bit.ly/made4mondays] to help you and us understand your view of work.
- c. View Redeeming Work on our free RightNow Media platform. It provides six weeks of guided conversations, interviews, and documentaries reflecting examples of Christians integrating their faith and work. wearepcc.com/resources/rightnow-media/