TOGETHER: REMEMBERING

EXPERIENCES THAT INFORM OUR FUTURE

Like the Israelites in the desert heading toward the Promised Land, we are a faith community heading into a promised future. In this series, Together: Remembering Experiences that Inform Our Future we will learn from the Israelites' story, found in the Book of Deuteronomy, about what they were called to remember in order to follow God well. This week, we close out the series by reflecting on what we have learned and being reminded that the Lord is with you and for you.

#1

Review: In our journey with the Israelites in Deuteronomy, what are you remembering from the book that is impacting your life? (e.g., Love The Lord Your God, The Commandments, The Covenant of the Land, Fear the Lord, You Are Chosen, Purge Evil, The Vulnerable, Consequences are Real, You Have a Choice)

#2

Reflect on a time in your life when you wondered if God was with you and for you.

#3

Meditate on the following passages Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 23. Note verses 31:6, 8, 23. What is being conveyed? To whom and by whom? And why is this so important to the Israelites and Joshua—their new leader-to-be?

#4

How does it make you feel that Jesus was called Immanuel (God with us—see Matthew 1:23) and that He promised the disciples His endless presence in Matthew 28:16-20? How does this extend to your current life?

#5

Besides being with you, the Lord is for you. How do the following passages speak to this truth? Deuteronomy 9:5-6, Matthew 9:12, Titus 3:5. How does this increase your confidence in God's faithfulness to you?

#6

What aspect of Deuteronomy do you want to take with you into the future? How would this benefit you and the PCC body—as a whole—if you did?
