

WEEK SEVEN

The Book of Acts details the start of the early church. In this seven-week series, we will call ourselves to strive toward our six PCC values as we are inspired by those who did the same as they established the Church. And if we do so, both individually and corporately, we will experience freedom and become a part of His glorious movement in a needy world.

This week we reflect on what it means to Follow The Spirit.

- Which of the values discussed so far are your easiest to live into or your hardest? [Live the Word, Share Jesus, Relate Well, Give Generously, Seek Justice]
- How would you describe the Holy Spirit to someone who didn't know the Bible?
- Reflect on this movement of the Spirit in Acts 2:1-41. What are your observations and questions that arise? What does this tell us about the role of individuals in God's greater narrative?
- What important truths do we learn about the Spirit from these key passages: Genesis 1:1-2, John 14:16-17, 26, Romans 15:13, 1 Corinthians 6:19-20, Galatians 5:22-25?
- Reflect on this diagram (4-Fold Leadings of Jesus) regarding how to confirm the leadings that God put on your heart? How have you seen this play out in your life? Do you have a current leading and how might you confirm it using the diagram?
- Take some time to thank God for wanting to guide you along the best pathway for your life (Psalm 32:8). Then confess to Him how you have tried to lead your own life too much. Then ask the Spirit to lead you now and on a daily basis. (e.g. "Spirit lead me," "Lord help me keep in step with the Spirit.")
