Title: Gifts Meant to be Shared

Preacher: Jeremiah Campos

Bible Verse(s): 3 John

Date: November 15, 2026

GATHER

These questions help us build connections with one another as we share personal experiences.

- Think of a time when someone welcomed you, included you, or made room for you when you weren't expecting it. What made that experience meaningful?
- Who has been someone in your life who has helped you grow or change—not simply through their advice, but through their relationship with you?

GROW

These questions guide us through the Scripture from Sunday's sermon, helping us observe the text and understand more deeply what Jesus is teaching.

Read John 4:1–26.

1. What barriers does Jesus cross in this encounter? What does this reveal about His character and the nature of God's grace?
2. Jesus offers the woman "living water" (vv. 10–15). What do you think He means by this? How does the contrast between ordinary water and living water help us understand the difference between what the world offers and what Jesus offers?
3. Looking at veres 16-18: What do you notice about the way Jesus holds both truth and grace together? What does this teach us about how God meets us in our brokenness?

Read John 4:39–42.

1. What transformation do you see in this woman? How does her personal encounter with Jesus become an invitation for others to experience Him for themselves?

GIVE / GO

These questions help us apply the sermon's takeaways and consider how God is calling us to respond.

Read Titus 2:11–14.

Consider how this passage explains how grace does more than save us—it trains us to live differently. How have you experienced God's grace changing the way you think, respond, or treat others?

This week's faithful step: What is one practical way you can extend the grace of Jesus to someone who might otherwise feel overlooked, excluded, judged, or unwelcome?

PRAYER

- Pray that PCC would be a community marked by grace—where people are known, loved, welcomed, and invited into relationship with Jesus.
- Ask God to show each of you one person to whom you can extend His grace this week.

Closing Prayer: "Jesus, thank You for the grace You have freely given us. Thank You for knowing us fully and loving us completely. Continue to transform our hearts through relationship with You. Help us to live in the good, to turn away from evil, and to extend the same grace, love, and welcome we have received. Show us how to make room for others and help them encounter You. Amen."

Practice:

Making Room

This week, intentionally make room for someone who might otherwise be left out.

1. Notice: Who in your church, neighborhood, workplace, or community might be overlooked or feel like an outsider?
2. Invite: Take a step toward that person. Invite them for coffee, a meal, a walk, or a conversation.
3. Listen: Be genuinely interested in their story. Resist the urge to fix, advise, or judge.
4. Welcome: Look for a way to help them feel known, valued, and included.
5. Reflect: Where did you experience Jesus in the interaction?
